Stuart Bugg,
B.A., LL.B (Hons),
M.Jur (Dist)

Stuart Bugg was born in Hull, England. He read politics and law at the University of Auckland, New Zealand. In 1982 he became World Universities Champion in 'Public Speaking and Debating' at the University of Toronto, Canada. Since 1983, Stuart has been resident in Germany, having completed his thesis and dissertation on comparative aspects in Anglo-German law.

In 1985 he was a tutor in law at University of Auckland and since that time has also lectured at the University Erlangen-Nuremberg in Legal English and at the University of Maryland (European Division) in Business Law. Stuart Bugg is a Solicitor (England and Wales) and a Barrister (New Zealand). He now practises law in Nuremberg, Germany with German colleagues and is a member of the Law Society (England & Wales), Deutscher Anwaltverein, New Zealand Law Society (N.Z.) as well as the Nuremberg Regional Law Society (Rechtsanwaltskammer Nürnberg).

Content and Aim of the Workshop

English is very often used in modern commercial contracts, especially in an international context. It is therefore essential to be able to use Legal English as a tool to develop and negotiate agreements. It is just as critical to understand the exact meaning and commercial (as well as legal) consequences.

Target Group

This seminar is intended for lawyers and non-lawyers alike. It concentrates on the practical issues related to using and understanding contracts in English. Anybody needing to develop, negotiate, use or understand commercial contracts in English would find this seminar very useful. The seminar is in a workshop format with case studies and group work. Ample opportunity will be given for participants to ask questions or raise individual matters of interest.

Organiser

The workshop is provided by Tutech Innovation GmbH, a company owned jointly by Hamburg University of Technology (TUHH) and the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg whose mission is to promote effective transfer and exploitation of scientific and technical knowledge.

Fees

Online Event € 800 (plus VAT) includes copy of materials.
